Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

X Currently, the National and Community Service Board, which is attached to DOA, utilizes moneys received from certain state agencies and from gifts, grants, and bequests and federal moneys to provide assistance to persons who operate service programs that address unmet human, educational, environmental, or public safety needs. Current law permits the board to assess certain state agencies for its administrative costs. Currently, the moneys that the board receives from other state agencies are limited to the amounts in the appropriation schedule, unless supplemented through a nonstatutory procedure with the concurrence of JCF.

This bill permits the board to expend all moneys that the board receives from assessments imposed on certain state agencies without limitation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

- 3 SECTION 1. 20.505 (4) (kb) of the statutes is amended to read:
